

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

This law has really improved my time at home. Now I can answer my personal phone calls and not have to worry that it will be from a telemarketer. I value the fact that my privacy is protected.

This law has been very effective and I have not received a single unwanted call over the entire last year.

Once again I urge you not to cancel this law.

Thank you